P. IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Effective Dates

The Trust must resolve to appoint new Trustees and/or Founders of the Trust. The date the parties meet will also be the date of the deed of appointment. However, the date on which the appointment takes effect can be a past or future date. For example, you should ensure that the effective date of the appointment is a date prior to the new Trustee/Founder participating in Trust administration.

Meeting & Resolutions

It is not always a legal requirement that individuals physically attend a meeting of trustees or directors of a corporate trustee. Most modern trust deeds and company constitutions permit teleconferencing. Attendance by telephone can be a convenient method of meeting where parties are physically separated. You must indicate whether or not a party was or will be physically present at a meeting.

A circulating resolution is an alternative to attendance at a meeting in person or by telephone. A circulating resolution requires all parties to sign and date the resolution. It is also necessary for the parties to be provided with all relevant material relating to the resolution. This may not always be convenient or a secure means of safeguarding the material.

Importantly, a circulating resolution does not have any legal effect until the resolution is signed and dated by all required parties. It will also only be effective from the date on which the last signature is obtained to the circulating resolution. For these reasons, physical or telephone attendance at a meeting is preferred over a circulating resolution.
